

Limina Prize for Cultural Achievement 2016

For his contribution to research in the field of the history of European cinema; for his numerous and key publications in both filmographies and monographs; for his role in establishing international research centres and European well-known publishing series; for his tireless work in spreading the film culture through documentaries, translations, festivals; for having pioneered investigations and studies on under-known areas of film history; for his perseverance in collaborating with many and various research networks spread across Europe, film societies, research centres, universities, archives, etc. The Limina Prize for Cultural achievement award 2016 goes to

Hans-Michael Bock, Cinegraph Hamburg